Three Real Estate Investor Groups Receive “Awards of Excellence” at MidYear Conference

(Cincinnati, Ohio) The National Real Estate Investors Association (NREIA) announced this week that three of its chapters received an “Award of Excellence” at their annual MidYear meeting, which took place last weekend in Atlanta, GA. Awards were given for outstanding efforts in six major categories; Government Affairs, Community Service, Communications, Membership, Education and Strategic Industry Partners Marketing. Three chapters (one from each size group; Small, Medium and Large) received an award.

The 2016 NREIA Awards of Excellence winners were:

- Small Group – North Metro Real Estate Investors Association, GA
- Medium Group – Traction Real Estate Investors Association, VA & MD
- Large Group – Arizona Real Estate Investors Association, AZ

The National Real Estate Investors Association’s Chapter Awards of Excellence is a celebration of all the accomplishments their members have achieved during the past year. Rebecca McLean, NREIA’s Executive Director said, “the Chapter Awards of Excellence honors the most outstanding associations in the real estate investment industry, nationwide. This is the top recognition for an association that has demonstrated paramount achievement in each of these six categories. We are very proud of their achievements and their commitment to promote & maintain high industry standards.”

In addition to the three Awards of Excellence winners, eighteen chapters received Honors of Merit for 2016 for their achievements in a particular category.
