National REIA Announces New Publication; “Real Estate Journal” to Circulate to Real Estate Investors Nationwide

(Cincinnati, Ohio) The National Association of Real Estate Investors announced today the publication of Real Estate Journal, the nationwide source of record for news & information about the real estate investor industry. The newspaper, published quarterly, will feature updates and articles on a wide variety of industry-related issues & trends of interest to real estate investors. It will be distributed to members of National REIA, which represents the interests of real estate investors nationwide.

Rebecca McLean, the Association’s Executive Director, said “We are pleased and excited to launch this new publication on behalf of our membership. We intend for it to not only add value to their businesses, but also provide them with relevant news and industry-related information that they can’t get anywhere else. We really feel that this will be an important publication for real estate investors and contribute positively to their bottom-line.”

Each quarterly issue will feature industry-related articles ranging from market trends, legislative updates, technology, finance and new products. Each issue will also feature a successful NREIA member in a Member Spotlight. The publication began with the Fall 2015 issue.

The National Real Estate Investors Association is a 501 (c)6 trade association. They are a federation made up of local associations or investment groups throughout the United States. They represent local investor associations, property owner associations, apartment associations, and landlord associations on a national scale. Together they represent the interests of approximately 40,000 members across the U.S. As such, are the largest broad based organization dedicated to the individual investor.
